

Housing Indicators

Housing indicators: Measure the housing stock details, status, and changes over the course of land reuse projects.

Indicator	Definition	Data Source
Property value of housing	Property value of the land and structure of housing units	Internal county/city/town data, e.g. County Assessor's office
Census data on housing: number of units	The total number of all housing units, including owned and rented properties	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing
Census data on housing: units in structure, e.g. multi-unit or mobile home	Housing characteristics, including occupancy and structure, housing value and costs, utilities, and other information	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing
Census data on housing: year built	The year housing was built in a particular area	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing
Census data on housing: selected monthly owner costs	Housing characteristics, including occupancy and structure, housing value and costs, utilities, and other information	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing
Census data on housing: gross rent	Housing characteristics, including occupancy and structure, housing value and costs, utilities, and other information	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing
Number of available housing units	The number of housing units that are available for ownership or rentals	Internal county/city/town data, e.g. City Administration American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing

Indicator	Definition	Data Source
Types of available housing (including affordable housing)	Types of housing structures that are available for ownership or rentals, such as homes, townhomes, apartments, mobile homes, and affordable housing units	Internal county/city/town data, e.g. City Administration
Percentage of available housing allocated for affordable housing developments	Percentage of housing stock in a neighborhood or community that is allocated as affordable, such as lower-income housing	Internal county/city/town data, e.g. City Administration
Census data on housing: year built (e.g., percent of housing units built before 1950 or 1978)	Housing characteristics, including occupancy and structure, housing value and costs, utilities, and other information	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing
Census data on housing: occupancy, including vacancy and rental vacancy rate	Housing characteristics, including occupancy and structure, housing value and costs, utilities, and other information	American Community Survey American Fact Finder link for housing